PRESLEY, ITAWAMBA CROSSROADS RANCH HOLD NATURAL GAS RIBBON CUTTING

Fulton, Mississippi (July 22, 2021) – Today, Northern District Public Service Commissioner Brandon Presley joined the Itawamba Crossroads Ranch, Fulton city leaders, Itawamba County officials and legislators for a natural gas ribbon cutting ceremony in northern Itawamba County.

The gas lines will connect natural gas to five duplexes, which will provide housing to ten male residents. It will also provide gas to the Ranch's main lodge for a commercial-sized kitchen where the residents' meals will be prepared and served. Additionally, the gas lines will provide natural gas to 29 homes in the area.

"Itawamba Crossroads Ranch is a prime example of community and faith-based leadership meeting the needs of our people. This project will help save the Ranch money and bring natural gas to area residents also. My heartfelt thanks goes to Fulton city officials for expediting this request," Commissioner Brandon Presley said.
